Celebrate the work. Carry the learning. Step into what comes next.

CONGRATULATIONS

ANGLIA RUSKIN UNIVERSITY

Message from the Vice-Chancellor, ARU

Your graduation ceremony is a fantastic opportunity for you to celebrate your hard work and academic achievement with your family, friends and lecturers.

We are immensely proud of your success and know you'll make a difference in your chosen field and across society more generally. We also thank all of those who have supported you in getting to this day.

Whatever your qualification, it is rewarding to know that you are ready to analyze and challenge, to welcome ideas from others and offer up your own, and to weigh arguments and make decisions – these qualities will help you succeed in whatever path you choose.

You are now officially Anglia Ruskin alumni and are automatically members of the alumni network. Our thriving alumni network boasts tens of thousands of members worldwide, so do keep in touch with us as your career develops – we would be delighted if you could consider becoming actively involved as a regional, national or subject representative, or offer to mentor a current student.

Please make the most of this supportive community, as there is no doubt that our success and your success are inextricably linked.

Have a wonderful day.
